

HAPPENINGS IN THE KINGDOM OF MORGAN

Morgan News

The girls at Allens are looking forward to Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedges of S. E. 10th, the Goldfarbs and others.

Local politicians will give a speech at the First Ward meeting.

Outings of various organizations and clubs of Morgan were reported on Thursday.

James Lott and his friends are visiting their old residence in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Hedges' horses have been sold for many weeks and are gradually getting better again.

Mrs. Wadsworth for Chapman, Wyo., last Sunday evening, took her car's visit.

Mr. Halligan of Ogden, is spending a pleasant week with his daughter Mrs. Alta Poulson.

Miss Lois Little will return to Ogden this week, to take up her third year work at the High school.

Miss Anna Thackeray Fletcher from Salt Lake City, has taken up her work in the Ogden High School.

Miss Wadsworth gives her Wedding dress on Sept. 1. The bride is Weston Hedges.

Many friends of the young couple extend all good wishes for a happy life.

Lizzie Stevens of Parowan was reported very low Thursday evening.

Attendance of the public school meeting, the High School will commence work. Most the pupils, boys and girls, and girls make their coats out of old.

Miss H. A. Johnson and Howard Thackeray, Miss Johnson's son, will conclude the early part of this week, and return Friday the first half of the time, during which time he is to continue his studies.

The quantity of the Bee Taggart brothers, who sang at the Senior Sister Service, was enjoyed by all present. Certainly Beehart has just cause to be proud of her part of the program.

Miss Millie Porter, daughter of Leman Porter, and Mr. Charles Carney, of Westord, were married in the Salt Lake Temple last Wednesday and the bride was given a shower Thursday evening.

Tom Jones, while at work on a highest bridge on the Harriman system, which is being built 6 miles off of Anton, Idaho, missed his footing and fell, fracturing both legs. The bridge at its highest point is 17 feet.

Mr. Jessie Cross of Big Horn returned home Tuesday. Rumor has it that he left acting in this vicinity. Some say it may be seen on the finger of one of our most prominent Morgan girls. Guess the finger. Never mind, the girl, he will look after her.

Mr. H. H. Cavanaugh state organizer for the W.O.W. is in our midst arranging for the public installation of new officers. This is becoming a strong local order. Has in its membership men who are united in purpose, and who believe that right is no man. The lodge has as its auxiliary, "The Woman of Woodcraft," a band of women with lofty ambitions, high ideals, and unselfish motives.

Her 82nd Mile Stone

Mrs. Ann Fry passed her eighty-second birthday at her home Tues. Sept. 3 surrounded by most of the members of the family who gathered at her residence at a quiet P. M.

After refreshments were served a most enjoyable social evening spent. The Star joins with the numerous friends and relatives of Mrs. Fry in wishing her many more such birthdays.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery which have effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by John Boyden and Son.

A Birthday Party

Brother John Rich celebrated his eighty-first birthday at his home in South Morgan, Monday evening. There were present upon invitation, Prof. Wm. Rich and wife, James Rich and wife, Sarah Ann Rich, Wm. Heming and wife, Robert Hogg and wife, T. H. G. Welsh and wife, Ann Fry and Susan Fry, James Rawle and wife, Jas. Taylor, Wm. Rich Jr. and wife and Max Rich.

The time was passed most pleasantly by the old veterans gathered there in telling of experiences incident to the pioneer days and in renewing long-cherished acquaintances. The delicious prepared and served dinner was much enjoyed by all. We hope that Brother Rich will live long enough to enjoy many other such gatherings.
